

THREAT WATCH

TRANSPORT CANADA

DATE: 2022-02-11

UNCLASSIFIED

Blockades – Flash Update Summary 11 February

Airports

- Toronto Pearson and Vancouver Airports have stood up their Emergency Operations Centers (EOCs); protests expected on 11-12 February.
- Montreal Trudeau Airport working with Sûreté du Québec (SQ) intelligence and are monitoring.
- Winnipeg and Edmonton Airports have plans in place to minimize operational impacts during possible protests on 11-12 February.
- One protest-related truck arrived at Edmonton Airport and was turned away. Local police continue to monitor.
- Calgary Airport is expecting a rally on the weekend.

Aviation Security

- Notices to Airmen (NOTAMs) may be in place from the afternoon of 11 February for Winnipeg and Emerson, MB.

Rail

- CN, CP, and Via Rail are reporting no impacts or threats.

Marine

- Protest planned at the port of North Sydney, NS on 12 February. Extra security will be in place.
- Protest planned in proximity of the Port of Halifax. Barriers will be erected to prevent access to the port. That group is expected to join up with Halifax-bound convoy.

Canada

- Protest organizers in Fredericton are encouraging gridlocking the city today and tomorrow.
- Slow roll into Halifax expected on 12 February (to be followed by protest). Expected departure from Halifax 17:00 local time. No known airport or on-water protests planned.

This document is UNCLASSIFIED and is the property of Transport Canada. Transport Canada provides this report to your office, agency or department in strict confidence. It is for official purposes only, and must not be reclassified or disseminated in whole or in part without the written authorization of Transport Canada's Director of Intelligence. Please address your requests or

- Planned convoy from Chilliwack, BC, may slow roll past Vancouver Airport and end at the 176st border crossing.
- Associated convoys in Newfoundland and Labrador, and Prince Edward Island are not expected to impact aviation, ports or other critical infrastructure.

Documents Posted

- RCMP Special Threat Advisory – Update 6
- SITE Intelligence: French Trucker, Car, Civilian Convoy to Converge on Paris in February
- SITE Intelligence: Trucker Convoy Targeting EU Capital Brussels on February 12, 2022
- SITE Intelligence: Anti-Mandate Trucker Convoy Announced for March 4 and 5 in California, Set to End in D.C.
- SITE Intelligence: “Railroaders for Freedom” Make Statement of Solidarity with Truckers Convoys

Chat cut-off: 16:00 EST